The Basque Country – A Strong Economic Player

The Basque Country - a remarkable region, which offers its international partners excellent business opportunities in many sectors. The strong business relationship between Bavaria and the Basque country has been strengthened once again by the opening of the new SPRI Representative Office in Munich.

Take the chance to meet a selected group of Basque companies coming to Munich, seeking partnerships for future business. At the same time you will have the possibility to obtain relevant business information about this economically important region!
